Kashmir has an enduring claim to the attention of lovers of beauty. It is also home to the Kashmir shawl, which at its finest was among the most exquisite textiles ever woven. This book combines rich visuals and well researched text that tells the complete story of the Pashmina industry and the Kashmir shawl.

JANET RIZVI, freelance writer and researcher; Ph.D. in history from Cambridge University. She has spent many years in Kashmir and Ladakh.

MONISHA AHMED, textile researcher with a D.Phil. from Oxford University, won the 2003 Shep award of the Textile Society of America.
